To whom it May Concern;
I Eria J. Henning is writing this letter for my mother Mackcenet Henning.
Mackcenet Henning is my mother.
Mackcenet Henning owned property at 2409 and 2411 N. 1st St. In milwaukee on the East side of Town.
The taxes were paid on the property, the taxes were up to date.
Mackcenet Henning property was torn down to the ground with out any notice. She didn't receive a phone call, nor was she ever notify by mail that her home was going to be demolished.
Mackcenet Henning had all of her belonging in her home at the time it was demolished. There was no reason in the world for the city to demolish a person property with every thing they own still In the property.
My mother had: a Living Room Set - 2 Bedroom sets - a Living Room set in her den - a dinning Room Set - a set of Mattress in her Back room - items in the Bathroom - Kitchen set Stove - Refrigerator - Freezer - pots - pans - washer dryer - clothes - shoes - downstair in 2409 N. 1st St. was a furniture apartment, because it was used as rooming house rental. Orther things in the house were picture on the wall Rum-carpet on the floor - 3 TV's - 2 Large Cabenets - pictures of family members - things in the attic and Basement.

Also on the day the house was demolished, the man that did the work for the city went in Mackenet Henning attic and took her Brand new Lawn furniture out. He was seen putting on a truck. This was witness by several people in the neighborhood.

Thank You.

Mackenet Henning
